My dear Mr Germain

I am very sorry to trouble you, but I have no more printed Certificates, and should feel obliged if you would send me three or four, as at the beginning of the month I shall require them.

Give my kindest remembrances to your wife, and

Believe me to remain
Yours very sincerely

My dear Mr Ferrers

I was disappointed at receiving the Certificates, without a word from you. I trust your silence proceeds from want of time, and not from indisposition. You cannot imagine with what pleasure, I receive a few lines from you, it is the last link which binds me to England.

I was not aware until two or three days since, that Mr Thomas had written two or three letters to you, I am sorry that he should have troubled you, for I am well aware that you have done all in your power to serve him.

His retirement age, and infirmity
